Constant Contact Update

The Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life is now using Constant Contact to manage our newsletters. Beginning now, the President's Weekly To Do Lists and the community newsletters will be sent through constant contact. The office's contact information can be found at the bottom of every newsletter, if you would like to contact us with any questions.

Staff Updates: Michael Eberhard

The OSFL would like to welcome three new members to the staff.

Our first welcome is to Michael Eberhard, our new Sorority & Fraternity Life Coordinator. Michael started with the Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life in May and will be serving as the primary advisor for the Asian Sorority and Fraternity

Council, Interfraternity Council, Order of Omega, and co-advisor for the Professional Sorority and Fraternity Council. He graduated from University of the Pacific with an M.Ed in Educational Administration and

Leadership, and from California State University, Fresno with a B.A. in Social Work. His experience working with sororities and fraternities includes serving as chapter president, member educator, and IFC president as an undergraduate, and professionally as a traveling national fraternity consultant and advisor for the Fraternity & Sorority Life community at University of the Pacific. Michael has a background in social services and worked professionally as a support counselor and life coach for foster youth. His experience in student affairs includes work with residential life and housing, student-athlete advising, social justice advocacy and education, leadership development, student conduct, and organizational advising. All chapters affiliated with the councils listed above, please contact Michael with any advising needs

We'd also like to welcome our two new Greek life Assistants: Brandon Soares and Isabella Sun. Brandon is a fourth-year Sociology major and current president of Theta Chi. Isabella is second-year Managerial Economics and Textiles double major and a member of Chi Omega.

The Xperience

Sunday, September 18th, on Hutchison Field from 6-10 p.m, The Office of Sorority and Fraternity Life and Athletics will be coming together to host The Xperience on Hutchison Field. At the event, councils and chapters will have an opportunity to table for their organizations as well as the chance to work alongside members of Athletics to facilitate games and activities for the incoming students to enjoy. The Xperience will be a great opportunity to interact with the incoming classes of 2020 and 2018, so make sure to save the date. If your organization would like to table at the event, or if individuals in your organization would like to volunteer to staff the event, please fill out the forms below. Additional information about the activities held at the event and how chapters may participate in them will be coming September first.

UC Davis Football Advertisement

Athletics would like all those with a chapter house to help promote the upcoming Football Season. If your chapter would like to take part in helping by placing a lawn sign in their front yard, signs may be picked up at the Memorial Union 4th floor, room 401, from Michael Eberhard.

Contact Michael, or the office, for the best time to pick up a sign.

City of Davis: Neighbors' Night Out

Sunday October 16th is the date of Neighbors' Night Out. This is a chance to plan block parties aimed at fostering good community relations with those around all of your chapter houses. For more information on how to plan and throw your own event, click below
